

Biography of Nataša Ivanović

Nataša Ivanović, born in 1968, graduated from the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb.

She began her professional career in the investment fund industry in 1997 at Kaptol Investment Company, where she served as Head of Finance. In 1998, she was appointed fund manager of the first open-ended investment fund in the Republic of Croatia.

At the outset of the pension reform in 2001, she participated in the establishment of Adriatic Invest d.o.o., the management company of the Plavi Mandatory Pension Fund, where she was appointed a member of the Management Board, a position she continues to hold. At the end of 2003, Erste OMF and Helios OMF were merged into the Plavi Mandatory Pension Fund, following which the fund was renamed Erste Plavi Mandatory Pension Fund and the management company was renamed Erste d.o.o. for Mandatory Pension Fund Management.

Throughout her professional career, she has served as a member of the supervisory boards of several Croatian companies, including Piramida Sesvete, TUP Dubrovnik, Geoprojekt Buzet, Dalekovod d.d. and Villa Dubrovnik.

She holds a licence as an authorised pension fund manager and a licence as an internal auditor.
